- Discipline and behavior management
- Partnering with birth parents
- Communicating with social workers
- Keeping youth connected to their history and culture
- Making a culturally welcoming home

Genuine Voices

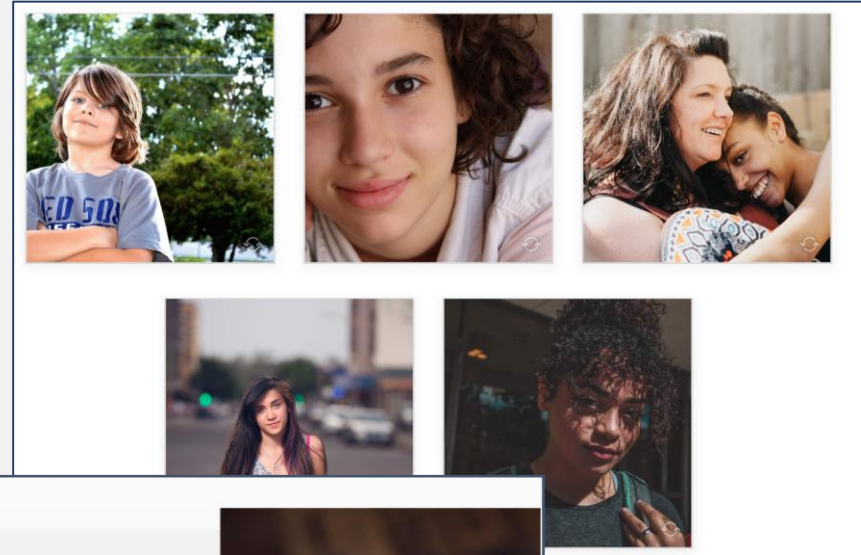

CCT includes videos from real people in the caregiving community, including:

- former foster youth
- veteran parents (who reunified with their children and who did not)
- foster and adoptive parents

Lived Experience

Throughout the online training, we use a recurring set of children of varying ages and backgrounds throughout the eight sessions to bring the examples to life and create continuity.

Lily (4 months) doesn't seem to point at or gesture towards things. She can't yet pick objects up and bring them steadily to her mouth.
